Subject: Update on Demonstrations

Members of the Board and City Councillors,

I am writing to update you on the major demonstration that has been underway in the downtown core this weekend. The Chief of Police has provided regular updates to both the Mayor and myself and will continue to do so.

Overnight, large crowds who remained in the downtown core were actively managed by police. Several challenges with demonstrators were encountered including sporadic road blockages by trucks, which police officers worked to clear. These high risk situations were successfully de-escalated and resulted in no arrests; however, acts of criminality have come to the attention of police.

Criminal Investigations

Several criminal investigations are underway by the Ottawa Police Service (OPS) in relation to the desecration of the National War Memorials/ Terry Fox statue, threatening/illegal/intimidating behaviour to police/city workers and other individuals and damage to a city vehicle. Criminal acts will not be tolerated by police and will be fully investigated. Charges will be laid against anyone involved in criminality.

OPS has investigative and evidence gathering teams in place for any criminal acts. Criminal charges may be laid immediately or in the days, weeks and months to follow.

Today, a large presence of police continues throughout the downtown core and the movement of protestors and trucks continues to be managed. Emergency lanes are being maintained.

Priorities continue to include management of traffic issues (including gridlock), keeping peace and order, protecting monuments, and addressing threatening and / or high risk behaviour. This work is resource intensive, and police resources are fully stretched and fully engaged. Public safety remains the top priority in what is a potentially volatile situation.

Police and City staff are very aware of the complaints relating to parking, idling, noisemaking and other inappropriate behaviour. At this time, due to safety concerns, management of the protest and traffic must take precedence.

However, these matters will be responded to as resources become available.

Ending of the Demonstration and Departure

Throughout the remainder of the day and into the evening, focus will shift to implementation of egress and traffic approaches that move crowds and vehicles out of the downtown core. This will require a significant number of resources to implement and additional information on these efforts will be distributed throughout the course of the day and into the overnight.

In fact, police are already working to facilitate the departure of individuals who are wanting to leave the area.

I want to thank the police members, emergency responders and City staff/crews managing this demonstration. I know this has been a very difficult job in very cold weather and we all appreciate their professionalism, patience and dedication to keeping our community safe.

Regards,

Diane Deans
